

Rezlive

India

Anand Desai has been appointed as Group CIO for Rezlive.com (Travel Designer Group). He comes with more than 18 years of experience in IT industry. In his previous assignments he has played key leadership roles in organisations like Reuters and Credit Suisse working across locations: New York, Zurich, London, Singapore & India. With his proficiency in technology, management and operations he aims to take Rezlive.com platform to the next level by scaling up operations and expanding its technological capabilities.

