

RezLive strengthens premium hotel portfolio, expands short-haul options to enable high-value travel experiences: Jaal Shah

📅 April 2, 2026

As demand rises for premium stays and short-haul international travel among India's affluent travellers, Jaal Shah, Founder, RezLive.com and Group Managing Director, Travel Designer Group, said the company is enabling partners through stronger inventory and enhanced booking tools. "We are strengthening our premium hotel portfolio and expanding short-haul options. With deeper inventory across global destinations, partners can access better rates, richer content, and real-time availability, enabling personalised, high-value travel experiences," he said.
